Report on Webinar:

A webinar was organized by Myra Business School to the Second & Final year classes of all courses. Mr. John Kuriakose focused on the Covid-19 has taken away thousands of jobs and rendered a vast population unemployed due to the shutdowns and economic problems. Livelihood generation for the skilled, employable youth in the current crisis situation due to COVID-19 demands a solution with strategic and well as futuristic vision. More than bridging the skill-gap, it calls for unification of the job with the job seekers, eliminating the odds posed by the crisis. To bridge the gap between education and employability, mammoth plans for skill development of the rural as well as urban youths have been rolled out at a national level. While the skill-gap reduced to an extent, the present crisis of Covid-19 has put us in a critical issue of “livelihood opportunities for the skilled employable youth”. 230 students attended the webinar.

7. Speaker: Sri John Kuriakose, Myra Business School
8. Targeted Audience: B.Com/B.Sc and BBA Final year students.
9. Outcome of the Orientation: Commerce students will be aware of opportunities in higher studies.
